

Revised Schedule

PGY2 Ethics Course - 2009

UH (dates/times/locations below)

Key Issue	Curricular Objectives	Paradigm Case	Pedagogic Method
July 6 - 12:00-2:00 Aud B UH Ethics in Anesthesiology Introductory Seminar Dr. S. Spadafora	To review the basics of biomedical ethics as it applies to Anesthesiology and Perioperative Medicine.	N/A	Seminar Powerpoint
Communication, Pt. I July 13 - 2:00-4:00 PM Aud B UH Dr. V. Schulz	TBA	TBA	Discussion
Communication, Pt. 2 July 20 - 12:00-2:00 PM Aud B UH Dr. S. Spadafora	TBA	TBA	Discussion
No Session – July 27 and August 3, 2009
Research Ethics Aug 10 - 2:00-4:00 PM B3-222 UH Dr. I. Singh	To be able to use arguments supporting truth telling To recognize exceptions to truth telling	Don't tell my husband he has cancer	Case discussion
Consent & Capacity Aug 17 - 2:00-4:00 PM B3-222 UH Dr. J. Granton	To know the ethical, legal and policy justifications for consent, and the elements of consent To be able to negotiate a refusal of life-sustaining treatment	Refusal of amputation	Case Discussion
Disclosure Aug 17 - 2:00-4:00 PM B3-222 UH Dr. J. Granton	To know the elements of disclosure and the standards for disclosure. To be able to perform a competent disclosure regarding a proposed treatment	Carotid endarterectomy	Case Discussion
Substitute Decision Making Aug 24 - 2:00-4:00 PM Aud B UH Dr. J. Granton	To know the justification for substitute decision-making. To be able to perform substitute decision-making, including in an emergency	Blood transfusion for an unconscious child of a Jehovah Witness	Case discussion
Truth Telling Aug 24 - 2:00-4:00 PM Aud B UH Dr. J. Granton	To develop a framework for understanding the ethical issues raised by performing research in human subjects To understand the concept of clinical equipoise To understand the procedural requirements for conducting a clinical research study	Trial of a new laparoscopic fixation technique	Case discussion